ALWIN DEFEATS GERANIUM

WINS A HANDICAP, HEAVILY BACKED, IN A HARD DRIVE.

Teacress, 10 to 1. Takes a Similar Event for Sprinters-Mary Morris Also Succeeds, With Black Prince, 20 to 1, Beating Humo-Five Favorites Lose.

Five favorites were beaten at Brighton Beach track yesterday in the presence of another crowd of 12,000 persons. There was no stake feature, but two handicaps supplied the deficiency. A. L. Aste's Alwin, recently purchased out of a selling race, was the only successful first choice. He was hammered down to 11 to 10 in the handicap at nine furlongs, and was taken to the front by Tommy Burns as soon as the gate went up. Before three-quarters of a mile had been covered it was a two horse affair, with T. C. McDowell's Geranium, 5 to 1, pressing Alwin hotly for the leadership. In the stretch both Burns and Martin went to the whip, and in a smashing drive Alwin won by a length in 1:52 2-5. Geranium was ten lengths in front of Voladay, 15 to 1, with Mattie Corbett's Out of Reach, carrying 126 pounds and going up in the betting from 2 to 1 to 16 to 5, a poor

Teacress, a 10 to 1 shot, landed the other handicap, at six furlongs, in a drive by three parts of a length from E. E. Smathers's Burleigh, 3 to 1, who carried top weight. Lady Uncas, who was a coupled favorite with Ancestor at 8 to 5, ran third, four lengths back. Ancestor, who was close behind, received a bungling ride from Miller. Czaraphine, 6 to 1, with Hildebrand up, prove i a rank ailure. The time was 1:13 2-5.

E. E. Smathers's Ala Russell, a 3 to 5 favorite. was distractfully beaten in the first race, for two-year-olds, six furlongs. The winner turned up in L. O. Appleby's Mary Morris. backed down to 10 to 1, who took the race in a drive by a length in 1.11. August Belmont's Ladsarion, 6 to 1, was second, beating S. S. Brown's Youth, 6 to 1, by a head Kiamesha, a heavily backed favorite in the third race, for three-year-olds, was another bitter disappointment. She tried to run out on the lower turn, when in the lead, and Hildebrand beat her over the head with his whip In the backstretch she continued to bear out, and finally sulked so that she dropped far out of it. Humo, 8 to 5 second choice, would probably have wen had it not been for the fact that Willie Knapp had him in a pocket a greater part of the way. At the wire Black Prince, a 20 to 1 shot, beat Humo a head, with Don Royal, 12 to 1, a length and a half back and a head in front of Head Dance. The time was 1.47. In the backstretch she continued to bear out.

and a head in front of read butter was 1.47.

There was rough riding of all sorts in the fifth event, at a unite and a sixteenth. Marty Bergen, who rode Buttons, had a particularly hard time of it, but managed to get third money, a head in front of Woodford Clay's Memories, the favorite, who was backed down from 4 to 1 to 11 to 5. J. L. Holland's Line of Life, backed down to 6 to 1, was the winner, McDaniel getting him home with a length to spare in 1.474-5. Martin got the place with St. Breeze, a 50 to 1 shot, by a head from Buttons. Jerry Lynch was practically left at the post.

T. D. Sullivan's Caprice, the favorite in the last race, for two-year-old fillies, five and a half furlongs, finished so far out of the money that the Tammany crowd got tired of looking for her. W. B. E. Lockwood's Deviltree, 18 to 5, ran a fine race and won by two lengths from August Belmont's Bivouac, 6 to 1, with T. J. Gaynor's Argentine, 6 to 1, a length away. Sydney Paget's Watergrass, 7 to 1, was a length out of the money. The time was 1.082-5. The summaries.

It was esti-Brighton Steeplechase; about mated that fully $50,000 was taken from the books on her success. The clubhouse people got a large slice of this amount, with Sim Deimel, Sig Levy, J. H. Brighton Junior Stakes; for Brown's Youth supported by Eole Pearsall, J. Keime, Eddie Burke and Bob Tucker. McGinnis split a wager on Aviston. Nobody of prominence cashed on Teacress in the second race, but there was a great plunge on Smathers's Burleigh, who was closed at 9 to 5 a moment before the horses closed at 9 to 5 a moment before the holes-were off. Smathers made a good bet and so did his trainer, Sam Hildreth, with all of the clubhouse agents aboard, together with Mark Riordan, Frank Moore and others. Lady Uncas and Ancestor, coupled, were backed heavily by John Walters, Bob Rose, Sol Lichtenstein, Walter Slopher, Bill Brown and Sam Manheimer. Fred Eshner took Lucy Young third and Joe Hayman had $500 on Czaraphine. Billy Timmons had only a small bet on his horse Black Prince, who won the third race at 20 to 1. But if Humo had captured this race Special Cable Despaich to THE SUN.

The clubhouse went to Kiamesha with extreme confidence, Joe Murphy, Pat edy, Bill Brown and P. McGrath also betting on the Esher filly.

There was another big and successful play on Alwin in the fourth event. The horse's owner, Tony Aste, bet only $500 on him, but Dave Johnson and Jesse Lewisohn each wagered $5,000. M. Ray, Zach Frost, Billy DuBois, Sol Lichtenstein, Mark Riordan and Frank McKee also bet on the winner. There was one clubhouse commission of $5,000 on Out of Reach, who was also backed by Joe Murphy and Dick Doggett. Kehailan was played by Abe Gruber, William Applegate, Eole Pearsall and Fred Eshner and Frank McDougall and Joe Rose went to Geranium.
While the betting on the fifth race was under way it was announced in the ring that Military Man was a doubtful starter. pion. 3 sets to 2. Ward took the first two and then lost the remaining three, weakening distinctly toward the finish. The score was 7-9, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-0.

Both Larned's and Ward's magnificent services frequently baffied their opponents. Larned's weakest point was his net play, which did not suffice against Smith's powerful driving Doherty's all round proficiency gave him the victory in spite of Ward's brilliant opening. In the deciding set the umpire gave a ball outside which was obviously inside, thus scoring an important point to Doherty. The latter showed dissatisfaction and deliberately smashed the next ball away outside, drawing prolonged approval from the spectators and many of the lavers waited until his apand many of the lavers waited until his appearance at the post was assured before going on with the posting of odds. It seems that Military Man was late in coming to the track, for which his owner, T. G. Ferguson, was fined $50 by the stewards. Lewisohn had made a bet on him, but he decided to hedge by playing W. R. Rogers's Caronel, a horse that was tipped all over the track and was sent out over the wires to Western cities early in theday as a real good thing. Caronel, however, went up in the betting, and his owner was, incidentally, fined $50 by the stewards for not having a licensed trainer on hand to saddle him in the paddock. Rogers is a trainer himself, but he has not yet received a license. The smart money went on Memories at the last moment. Bob Tucker, E. R. Bradley, Henry Schopps, John Steimer, Fred Lowe, R. Angarola and Sam Stedeker betting on the Sir Dixon mare. Fred Calloun and Tom Lloyd were among those who fell for Caronel, with Smith Keime playing Military Man, Charley Fox taking Ascension and Fred Eshner putting a show bet on Jerry Lynch. John W. Diestel cashed a bet of $7,000 to $1,000 made with Bill Cowen, Tom Costigan and Billy Hayes also supporting this winner.

Joe Yeager won $5,000 on Devitree in the last race. Sol Lichtenstein and the Sullivans bet on Caprice, Eddie Burke too. Argentine, Dave Gideon bet on La France and Tyler, the Humming Bird, placed $1,000 on Watergrass.

Dave Gideon bet on La France and Tyler, the Humming Bird, placed $1,000 on Watergrass.

Bookmaker Reilly, one of the original ten outsiders in the first line, dropped out and Al Hanf took his place. Henry Harris and F. Brindle retired from the Mets line.

Robert Pinkerton has returned from a long trip abroad but he will not assume charge of the racetrack police until fall. He is in much improved health.

A. B. Hudson had a big bet on Ala Russell but saved himself with a place wager on Ladsarion.

Frank Farrell came to the track with Hal Chase, the crack first base man of the New York Americans, who was hit in the face with a batted ball in Detroit recently. Chase has been suffering with severe pain in his head since the accident, but is on the high road to recovery.

St. Breeze, who ran second in the fifth race with 50 to 1 about him, was so stiff and sore when he came out of the paddock for the usual warm up that he was sent up and down the homestretch twice in order to limber him uo. Those who were sharp enough to see this unusual proceeding hurried to the ring to put down fliers at the big price.

Marty Bergen came to grief at the post in the fifth race. He tried to get a running start with Buttons, for which Mars Cassidy suspended him for the rest of the meeting. This was Bergen's third mount and he rode in the pluckiest sort of fashion.

Although Louis V. Bell recently denied a report that he had severed relations with his trainer, J. H. McCormick, there was a notice on the blackboard yesterday to the effect that L. J. Schlosser and not M. Cormick was the trainer of Iyanhoe, who carried the Bell silks in the third race. Schloser has been foreman for A. J. Joyner for a long time.

It was said on excellent authority last night that a compromise will be effected between with hooking mallets allowed the class team may no longer make up such wide differences in ratings. It is probable that a radical change will be made in all the individual ratings by the handicap committee this fall.

Although Trainer John W. Rogers would not consent to allow Artful to come down from Saratoga to meet Sysonby in a match race at the Beach, he has shipped Pegasus to Brighton to carry the Whitney co.ors in the Junior Stakes to-day.

Puddin' McDaniel, who has been on the hospital list for some time, got back into the game yesterday with two winners—Teacress and Line of Life.

T. J. Gaynor's Argentine, who ran third in the last race, is a black filly by Sir Dixon—Elopement, who had started only once before. She will improve.

Watergrass, who ran a fair race in this event, is by Watercress—Miss Clay, and has been doing some sensational work in her trials.

Caprice has been a costly investment for the Sullivans.

BRITT GETS THE DECISION.

OUTPOINTS SULLIVAN IN FIERCE TWENTY ROUND FIGHT.

Britt Draws First Blood in the Second and Scores a Knockdown in Eighth Round-Left Hooks and Jabs Help to Defeat Sullivan-Big Crowd Present

SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.-Jimmy Britt and Kid Sullivan met at Woodward's pavilion to-night in a twenty round fight before a good sized crowd. Both men weighed in at 6 o'clock at Corbett's at 133 pounds. Britt was a 3 to 1 favorite and the money of his supporters was always in evidence. Britt got the decision at the end of the twenty rounds. The battle started shortly after 10 o'clock, with Jack Welch acting as referee. Britt appeared in the ring first, accompanied by Spider Kelly as chief second, Sam Berger, Tiv Krelling, Frank Rafael and Kirk Richardson as assistants. Sullivan followed within a few minutes and had with him Frank McDonald, Tommy West, Sol English and Al Herfor '.

Second Round Britt missed two left hooks to the body and head. He placed his left in the body and followed with two half blocked blows in the same place. A lead to the body brought quick returns from Sullivan, who landed with right and left in the body, getting a punch in the head as he got away. Britt landed hard a right cross. A moment later he received a hard left on the head. Again Britt landed a left hook. A right to the body also reached Sullivan and made Sullivan's nose bleed.

Third round—Sullivan rushed Britt t Third round—Sullivan rushed Britt to the ropes, landing his right to the body. Britt landed a right on the head and followed with a right to the body. Sullivan sent a stiff left in Britt's face. The Californian returned with several hard rights and a let in the stomach. Sullivan placed two stiff body punches.

Fourth Round—Britt landed on the mouth, and Sullivan landed two straight lefts on Fourth Round—Britt landed on the mouth, and Sullivan landed two straight lefts on Jimmy's face. Britt came back with left and right and again had Sullivan's nose bleeding. Britt placed two hooks and followed with a straight left on Sullivan's face. They mixed it in Sullivan's corner and the exchange was about even.

Fifth Round—Britt tried a left to the face, but was countered stiffly in the mouth. He landed a right of the body, but received two in return. Sullivan landed on the head, and as Britt clinched placed three stiff blows on Britt's body. Britt placed a stiff right cross on Sullivan's jaw.

Sixth Round—Britt's lead was met with three stiff body punches. He led again and got a right and left in the head. Britt continued to jab and placed his body punch and got a right and lett in the head. Brite continued to jab and placed his body punch squarely in the pit of the stomach. Sullivan's nose was again bleeding badly. Sullivan caught Britt as he came to him with a Seventh Round-Sullivan tried twice to mix it, but got the worst of the exchange. Britt's left was placed right in the stomach. and Sullivan tried to counter. Again Britt's left and right hooks landed. There was a mix-up at the end of round. Referee Welch had to push Sullivan away to prevent him continuing the fight after the

Eighth Round—Britt landed two hard left swings on Sullivan's head. He dropped Sullivan with a hard left to the jaw, the latt rtaking the count. As Sullivan arose Britt hit him again and Sullivan clinched. Twice more Britt landed with right and left be-fore Sullivan could steady himself. Britt fore Sullivan could steady himself. Britt was handing out terrific punishment. Ninth Round—Britt stabbed Sullivan with a left in the head. In an exchange Britt received two stiff ones in the face. Sullivan played a tattoo on Jim's body every time they clinched. Britt again brought his left to the body. Sullivan reached Britt twice with body blows. Sullivan received a counter in the face and a telling right on the jaw.

Tenth Round—Britt hooked his left in Sullivan's face. Sullivan reached the Californian's face with straight lefts. Britt feinted at the head and landed a left in the stomach. He received a hot return in the body a moment later. They exchanged punches in the center of the ring.

Eleventh Round—Sullivan tried to force matters, but his shots with the left at Britt's head were always a little short. Britt continued to stab his opponent with the left, varying this with occasional crosses to the head. Britt's left landed on the body and his left went to the jaw. This he followed with two more on the body.

Thirteenth Round—Britt stabbed his man twice and hooked him a left twice on the head. The Senator then landed two stiff kidney blows. Again Britt's left reached the head. Sullivan brought theers from the gallery by hitting Britt three times on the chest and following him around with wild swing s, which Britt cleverly blocked.

Fourteenth Round—Sullivan received blocked.

Fourteenth Round — Sullivan received the first blow, a left, flush on the nose; was stabbed all over the ring, and his nose commenced to bleed. Britt's lefts to the head kept the blood flowing from Sullivan's nose.

Fifteenth Round—The Californian's jabs were tantalizing enough to keep Sullivan from doing his best work. Sullivan went to the floor by the force of his own exertion when he missed a swing. Sullivan countered Britt hard on the head and landed his right on the side.

Sixteenth Round—Britt's stabs were in evidence and he followed with a left counter. Sullivan was shaking Britt up in the latter's own corner when the local boy landed his left hook on the stomach and stopped the rush.

Seventeenth Round—Britt hooked Sullivan on the head without a return. The Californian received a fierce body punch a moment later which evened things. The rest of the round was spent in sparring.

Eighteenth Round—Britt brought his indicators to the Kid's head with terrific Eighteenth Round—Britt brought his right over to the Kid's head with terrific force. He followed with body punches. Britt stabbed his man on the head and landed the body punch. Sullivan continued to hit him in the clinches.

Nineteenth Round—Britt's jabs came into play and Sullivan was satisfied to counter. Britt landed about four blows to his opponent's one. Britt landed two effective blows in succession, one on the head and one on the stomach.

The referee awarded the decision to Fritt. The referee awarded the decision to Britt

The Cardinals were a jest at the Polo Grounds yesterday, and the New Yorks climbed all over their frames. The wicked hitting of the champions had the St. Louis men groggy from the start, and they stumbled and staggered and reeled. Jack Taylor's pitching was torn to pieces by the native talent, and his support was just about as stanch as his pitching. The Cardinals were not able to keep platoons of New York men from getting on the bases or to hold them back when they were on. Mike Grady was a frost at turning back base stealers men from getting on the bases or to hold them back when they were on. Mike Grady was a frost at turning back base stealers and the Knickerbockers frisked around the highways with never a care. Filmsy fielding and decrepit hitting on one side and savage globe splitting on the other made the game a stampede. McGraw gave several of his substitutes a chance, and the crowd wondered where Archie Graham was.

Mike Donlin hit for two bases in the first inning and scored on McGann's single to center. Homer Smoot, whom seven cities will not claim on yesterday's performance, tripled for the Cardinals in the first, but as there were two out at the time and Gilbert threw Beckley out, Homer waived his claim to a run. A violent outburst of leather punishing by the New Yorks in the second and some slap stick vaudeville by the Cardinals gave the New Yorks six runs. Devlin unlimbered a lick to left. He captured second base when McBride dropped Grady's throw. Gilbert was hit, and Bowerman's bunt tangled up Burke and McBride. Mathewson floated a safe one over the infield, scoring Devlin and Gilbert. Bowerman was out at the plate on Browne's grounder to Arndt, but Donlin filled the bases with a single. Mertes bounced the ball into the right field seats, bringing in four runs in a cluster.

Dunleavy made a magnificent play in the fourth inning. With Dahlen on first, Devlin raised a foul fly to right. Dunleavy surged over the line, caught the ball while going at full speed and, with a straight, quick throw, put the ball in Beckley's hands before Dahlen got back. The Cardinals touched off three singles in succession off Mathewson in the fifth, which, in connection with a crazy throw by Dahlen, produced two runs. Hits by Gilbert and Mathewson, bases on balls to Strang and Donlin made a double steal, Elliott scring. McGann walked, and Donlin came all the way fore from second, while Arndt was throwing Mertes out at first. Dahlen hit to deep right center and did not exert himself running around the bases. Nevertheless he made a home run,

The Cincinnatis began to show familiarity with McIntyre's benders in the seventh inning of yesterday's game at Washington Park, and in the eighth Scanlon displaced him. The score was then a tie. It remained a tie throughout the eighth, ninth, tenth and eleventh innings, but in the twelfth the Reds broke the tie all to pieces. Odwell bog in the fun by drawing four balls. Steiniel thammered a three bagger far affeid, which brought Odwell home standing up. Phelps pushed out a single that accounted for Steinfeldt, and Harper jostled Scanlon for a one sacker. Huggins hit safely, and two more runs came. The Brooklyns tightened their cinches for their half of the twelfth, but all they got out of it was a blank. The but all they got out of it was a blank.
